LIFE STORY

Anthony Deshawn Mangum was born on May 1, 2000, at Cape Fear Valley Medical Center in Fayetteville, North Carolina, and departed this life on June 12, 2026.

Anthony graduated from Douglas Byrd High School in 2020. He was employed with Eaton Company in Fayetteville, North Carolina, where he worked hard and enjoyed his job. Anthony attended Fayetteville Technical Community College majoring in Business.

Anthony was known for his humorous, outgoing, and caring personality and his ability to bring people together. He loved gathering family and friends for bowling and was loved by everyone he met. Anthony was the type of person who could light up any room with his smile and sense of humor, and he enjoyed being around the people he loved. He never met a stranger and had a way of making everyone feel welcome and included. He was a natural leader, and everyone who came in contact with him felt safe and valued in his presence. His caring heart and genuine personality left a lasting impression on all who knew him. He brought joy to those around him, and the memories he created will be cherished forever.

He leaves to cherish his memory his loving mother, Natasha Mangum; his sister, Ayanna Mangum; his brothers, Davian Mangum and Talik McCollum; his grandmother, Brenda Brooks; his grandfather, Mike Johnson; and a host of other relatives and friends. Anthony was preceded in death by his aunt, Valerie McGirt, and his grandmother, Hazel Lee Latham.

The huge impact Anthony had on all of us will last forever in our hearts. His smile, laughter, and love for others will never be forgotten. He will be deeply missed, lovingly remembered, and forever cherished by all who knew and loved him.

A LETTER TO MY MOM

Mom, I'm sorry that I had to go.
God's got a plan for me, and I couldn't say no.

I hate to leave you all, and time will tell. May your mind find ease, your heart find peace, and I want you to wipe away your tears.

To my brothers and sister, you are in charge. Please take care of our mom for me and guard every inch of her heart.
I love you all, and I'll see you again.

Mom, always remember, you're still my first and only best friend!

Love Anthony
